Brethren and friends,

THE RIM COUNTRY CHURCH

Our Sunday morning classes on Temptation have progressed past the subject of purity to the subject of lying. Believe it or not, this lesson on lying has led to some very interesting discussions. These studies are going well.

November's sermons began with Who Can find an Honest Man; I preached next on The Leper and Jesus. On Nov 15 I preached on the false teaching of "Being in Limbo." This was followed by How to Deal with Uncertain Times. Last I focused on Exclusion in Religion-God is Exclusive.

We have has some members out for medical reasons and this is why Joanne's ladies' class was postponed. But now as of Dec 10, her class is resuming here at home where she can move around, sit in her own lift chair (and lay down if necessary). This gives her the security of facilites here at home which can ease her pain as best as possible when necessary. So far she has not had to go to much extreme during her class, but afterward.....

I reported two visitors last month but one of the cards that was given me had Ann Lee's name on it. This is the shut-in mother of the visitor Laura Lee. We were hoping to see more of Laura, but she may be fearful of the covid virus spike. We have lost two members who are staying at home due to their fear of the virus spreading. Another visitor was a neighbor who was looking for some social contact during these voluntary shutdown times. She went with us one Sunday but afterwards declined our next invitation saying she had enought of religion from her association with Catholics in her background. I think she misunderstood a statement at the very beginning of my sermon about the former lesson against Limbo. I think she was really looking for a group to spend Thanksgiving dinner with. So sad.

MY WIFE'S HEALTH

There is not much I can say that has not already been said. She went to the "pain doctor" and he increased her medicine which makes her head "fly" as she says. She has good days and bad days but still does what she can do.

AFRICA - I continue to get requests for support and food relief from Africa. One food relief is under consideration by a church but the support request is much harder for churches to decide on since there has been much mis-use of money in Zimbabwe.

Corrections/update:

Southside, Somerset, Ky- The corrections for last month were incorrect and are now corrected above. The confusion came from my change of banking to Arizona back in February. My Florida bank did not list the check number for February and I didn't catch it until now as I was forced to clear up the confusion anticipating tax filing.

May God's grace be with you,
Dave Beckley
